HISTORY OF THE STUDY CIRCLES IN THE TWO HOLY MOSQUES

http://doi.org/10.56656/101186

By Abbas Salih Tashkandi

SKU: 101186

This book traces the origins of knowledge study circles (ḥalaqāt) in the Two Holy Mosques, in Makkah and Madinah, from the Prophetic times and those of the Rightly-Guided Caliphs, through the Umayyad, Abbasid, Mameluke and Ottoman eras, to the present day. It explains in detail the types and development of elementary education establishments, called kuttāb, and formal schools (madrasah) neighbouring both holy mosques, as well as how lessons specific to study circles originated in both locations. The book then addresses the institution of hostel (ribāṭ) and its role in promoting knowledge throughout the Islamic eras, whether providing the amenities of shelter, food, and medical services to scholars, jurists and students of knowledge hailing from the Muslim lands, or contributing to the activity of the educational movement; indeed, scholars who were settled in these hostels (plural: ribāṭat) would hold study circles on the disciplines of canonical readings (qirā'āt), jurisprudence (fiqh), legal theory (uṣūl al-fiqh), sciences of the Prophetic traditions ('ulūm al-ḥadīth), Arabic language, and sciences of reason (al-'ulūm al-'aqliyyah). The book also addresses both the scientific board (al-hay'ah al-'ilmiyyah) and general teaching systems in al-Masjid al-Ḥarām, as well as the most renowned courtyards (sing. ḥaṣwah) and arcades (sing. riwāq), where study circles were convened. The book concludes with biographies (tarājim) of scholars of the two holy mosques.

KITĀB NASHR AL-ANFĀS FĪ FAḌĀʾIL ZAMZAM WA SIQĀYAT AL-ʿABBĀS

(A HISTORICAL NOTES ON THE HOLY WATER OF ZAMZAM)

http://doi.org/10.56656/100249

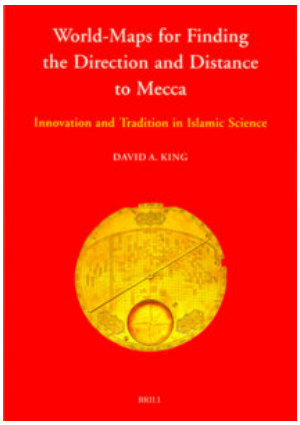

By Khalīfah bin Abī Al-Faraj bin Muḥammad Al-Zamzamī Al-Shāfiʿī (d. after 1068 A.H.)
Critically edited by Abdul Rahman S. Al-Muzaini

SKU: 100249

This book is a historical account of the well of Zamzam, the Ḥaram and Makkah al-Mukarramah during the Ottoman period. It contains many pieces of information related to the construction of the well of Zamzam and its restoration throughout the ages. It also describes the benefits of the water and its characteristics as well as details on the juridical rulings associated with it in terms of its consumption and use in treatment. Among the rules looked at, it discusses the one governing the transport of Zamzam water outside the city of Makkah and its use in purification for prayer. These rules were drawn from the sayings of the Imams of the four madhhabs (schools of thought) and their fatwās (legal opinions).
This book is considered one of the most important on the topic of the status of several locations in the Makkan holy shrine. It is also a book of history (as it looks at the historic aspect of Makkah), a book of politics and economics (as it considers aspects of politics and economics in Makkah), a book of fiqh (as it examines aspects of the rules governing the water of Zamzam) and a book on civilisation (as it talks of the building and planning of the Makkan holy shrine, its expansion and especially the building of the Kaʿbah in that period).

WORLD MAPS FOR FINDING THE DIRECTION AND DISTANCE TO MECCA

INNOVATION AND TRADITION IN ISLAMIC SCIENCE

By David A. King
Edited by H. Daiber and D. Pingree

SKU: 100246

With supporting images, this book gives an overview of the methods employed by Muslim scholars throughout history to locate the correct direction of the Holy Shrine of Makkah and the distances to it. The book then describes in detail two world maps discovered in Iran between 1989 and 1995. The author shows that the geographical data used in the maps were drawn from works in Central Asia and date back to the fifteenth century. As for the mathematical data, the author traces them back to Baghdad in the ninth century.

MECCAN ROMANTIC (GHAZAL) POETS DURING UMAYYAD PERIOD

http://doi.org/10.56656/100108

By Yosuf Bakkar

SKU: 100108

This study brings to light the poetic abilities of Makkans and what characterised their nature and aesthetic appreciation. The study looked at the position of Makkah on the poetic literary landscape in general and in romantic poetry (ghazal) in particular. The author researches the types of ghazal, such as politically malicious and conniving ghazal, superficial and dishonest ghazal, praise, reward and exaltation ghazal, the ghazal of the jurists, honourable ghazal and civil ghazal.
The book ends with a literature review of ghazal in the poetry of the Makkans from the pre-Islamic period (Jāhiliyah) up to the Umayyad period.

THE JOURNEY OF JOURNEYS

MAKKAH IN ONE HUNDRED MOROCCAN JOURNEYS AND A JOURNEY

http://doi.org/10.56656/100041

By Abdulhadi al-Tazi
Revised by Abbas S. Tashkandy

SKU: 100041

The book is a collection of biographies and letters written by travelers of olden times, including scholars of the Maghreb, historians, writers, Emirs and leaders who recorded their travels, their feelings and observations.
The travel writings are arranged chronologically, though some are arranged according to author or title. The author provides references for all the letters dealt with.
These letters provide an insight into the observations and points of interest mentioned by the writers, which often included that which they thought would be of high value and use to the audience they would be addressing back home.

WAFĀʿ AL-WAFĀʿ BI AKHBĀR DĀR AL-MUṢṬAFĀ

http://doi.org/10.56656/100042

By ʿAlī bin ʿAbd Allah al-Samhūdī (911 A.H.)
Critically edited and annotated by Qasim Al-Samarrai

SKU: 100042

This five volume book meticulously details the history of the city of Madīnah. Little is left out in terms of details of the city by its author al-Samhūdī. It can be said that his work is a comprehensive undertaking based on a variety of sources which he himself considered very carefully for authenticity and accuracy before including them in his monumental work. He was able to chronicle all events that occurred in the city up to the time of his death in 911 A.H.

THE CORRESPONDENCES OF THE OTTOMAN SUBLIME PORTE TO AL-ḤIJĀZ PROVINCE

(MAKKAH AND MADINAH) 1283-1291 A.H.

http://doi.org/10.56656/100040

Translated and annotated by Suhail Saban

SKU: 100040

This book holds information of interest to researchers on the history of the two Islamic Holy Shrines of Makkah and Madinah. This includes the correspondence between the Sublime Porte (al-Bāb al-ʿAlī), the Ottoman central government, and the Wālī of Ḥijāz during the period 1283 A.H. (1866 A.D.) to 1291 A.H. (1874 A.D.). The letters were written in very eventful times as there were many attempts to overthrow the Ottoman rule in the Arabian Peninsula, such as the capture of Najd, Iḥsaʾ and Qaṭīf by Saʿūd al-Faiṣal. This led to a noticeable increase in the volume of correspondence between the High Porte and the Wālī of Ḥijāz whereby his views on the political developments were consulted, the preparation of a local army was discussed and the attempts to consolidate and draw in the Arab tribes were followed through. The correspondence also included general supervision details of the two cities of Makkah and Madinah.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE AND FINANCIAL ORGANIZATIONS IN MAKKAH DURING MAMLUK PERIOD

667-923 A.H. / 1268-1517 A.D.

http://doi.org/10.56656/100038

By Laila Amin Abdul-Majeed

SKU: 100038

This book is considered to be an in-depth study on the administrative and financial institutions in the history of Makkah during the Mamlūk period. It also brings to light the well organised nature of the mailing system between Egypt and Makkah while describing the important role played by the city port of Jeddah. The book also touches on the successful development of the waqf system and shows how that had a positive impact on the many ribāt and schools that were financially backed through the waqf of the Holy Shrine of Makkah (the Harām). This system also helped Makkah itself, its inhabitants and its neighbourhood. Meanwhile, the book deals with the economic aspect which was run according to highly sophisticated organisational structures seen in Makkah's trade and seasonal markets. The system was known to draw the interest of many of Makkah's visitors, pilgrims, traders and scholars.

RUBATS IN MAKKAH FROM EARLY BEGINNING UNTIL THE MAMLUKI PERIOD

A HISTORICAL AND CULTURAL STUDY (923-1334 A.H. / 1517-1915 A.D.)

http://doi.org/10.56656/100037

By Hosain A. Shfiee, Revised by Abbas S. Tashkandy

SKU: 100037

This book is considered a verified historical account of the ribāṭ of Makkah before and during the Ayūbī times, and in the Mamluks period. Using a chronological order the author looks at the reasons underpinning the establishment of ribāṭ and their relationship with awqāf (trusts) in view of the fact that Islām calls for social solidarity and protection of the needs and rights of the impoverished. The book also considers the external factors that had an influence on the ribāṭ in addition to the roles they played, be they educational or social. The book also includes studies on the political, economic and social landscape that played a part in the shaping of the ribāt.

RUBATS IN MAKKAH IN THE OTTOMAN PERIOD

A HISTORICAL AND CULTURAL STUDY (923-1334 A.H. / 1517-1915 A.D.)

http://doi.org/10.56656/100036

By Hosain A. Shfiee, Revised by Abbas S. Tashkandy

SKU: 100036

This book is considered to be the first academic documentation of the ribāṭ (ribāṭ, plural for rabṭ, a military-civilian concept of townships on permanent combat readiness) in Makkah during the Ottoman period of 923-1334 A.H. It exhibits 157 ribāṭ, of them 35 were turned into a waqf during that period.
The book is characterised by its academic documentation and use of very old sources and manuscripts specific to that period, detailing their operational structures, conditions and types, in addition to statistical analysis of information gathered on those ribāṭ. The author lists a number of important findings as well as suggestions for further studies, in addition to a large appendix that is full of photographs and historical texts.

KITĀB NAYL AL-MUNÁ BI-DHAYL BULŪGH AL-QIRÁ LI-TAKMILAT ITTIḤĀF AL-WARÁ

(922-946 A.H.)

http://doi.org/10.56656/100035

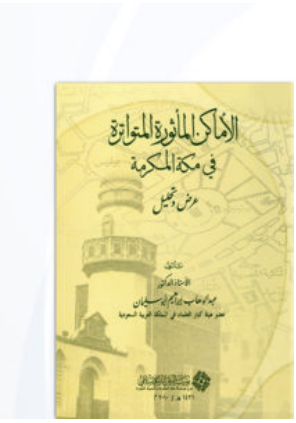

By Jār Allah bin al-ʿIz bin al-Najm bin Fahd al-Makkī
Critically edited by Muhammad al-Habib El-Hila

SKU: 100035

The importance of this book lies in its clear presentation of all the political events which occurred in Makkah, month by month, at the beginning of the Ottoman period. This includes information on the Ḥajj officials and their relationship with the descendants of the Prophet (Ashrāf) and with the Makkan society, while outlining the links Makkah had with the other Ottoman provinces such as Egypt and Yemen. It gives details on the economic life including markets places and foodstuff pricing. Furthermore, it describes the population of Makkah, its rich and poor, difficult and flourishing times. The book also contains other important information on the types of currencies used, the social life of the Makkans in their celebratory events like marriage ceremonies, births, deaths and sightings of the new moon. A special attention is given to the month of Ramaḍān, and Ḥajj, as well as to particular events during the month of Rabiʿ al-Awwal, like the celebration of the birth of the Prophet of Islām, mentioning en passant the scholars' views in its regard.

ISLAMIC HISTORICAL PLACES IN THE HOLY CITY OF MAKKAH AL-MUKARRAMAH

http://doi.org/10.56656/100034

By Abdul Wahhab I. Abu Solayman

SKU: 100034

The author collates the historic locations of Makkah, in which the first generation of Muslims lived. After identifying these locations, the author proves their authenticity through the method of tawātur (the unquestionable authentication of a report) and shows the rules governing the visiting of these places, since they represent the living memory of nations, the standing witness that cannot lie and the perennial evidence that speaks across the generations.
The author documents the historic places through biographical sources of the Prophet, his companions and the subsequent generations of followers, as well as through other general historical references on the subject, including works on worship rituals. The author identifies the Makkan relics that have disappeared and those still in existence today and discusses the two opinions held by scholars of approved or disapproved visits to these sites. Meanwhile, the book carries appendices of the biographies of a number of prominent historians who dealt with those vestiges.
The book also includes a number of photographs and maps of various historic locations.

BOOK MAKING AND WRITING IN THE ḤIJĀZ

ERA OF THE PROPHET AND THE RASHIDUN CALIPHATE

http://doi.org/10.56656/100029

By Maged A. Badahdah

SKU: 100029

The book aims to trace back and document the beginnings of the book manufacture in the region of the Ḥijāz since the time of the Prophet and the Caliphate.
The author recollects the historic developments that occurred during the prophetic and caliphate periods through identifying that period's documents in major sources. He captures the initial moments of archiving as well as the factors that influenced its development, including the education system and authorship, the codification of the Qurʾān, and the political, legal and monetary factors of the time. In the second chapter the author looks at the initial stages of book making, the materials involved, the terminology used to describe them, the ways and means of preserving documents as well as the scribes of that time.
This study resulted in the establishment of the first library on the Islamic civilisation and the setting up of the first publishing house for the Qurʾān. The author also found documents pertinent to the influence of Persian book makers on the Arabs. He describes a number of the early centres for the production of the Qurʾān (maṣāhif). He also found evidence to demonstrate the establishment of Qurʾānic schools (katātīb) and administrative departments (dawāwīn) at the time of the Prophet.

AL-THABAT AL-KABĪR

http://doi.org/10.56656/100026

By Shaykh Ḥasan al-Mashāt al-Makī
Critically edited and annotated by Mohammad A. Bin Obeid

SKU: 100026

The book is Shaykh Ḥassan al-Mashāṭ's biography of the scholars he studied with and met. It was published by Al-Furqān Foundation in celebration of Makkah being selected as the Capital of Islamic Culture.
The book also holds a biography of the author himself, details on his most famous classes in the Masjid al-Ḥarām and a number of images of his Ḥadīth class. It also includes his ijāzāt (graduation certificates) and the milestones to achieving them, the subjects he taught with them and the curricula he followed when teaching Ḥadīth in particular. All these classes were delivered in the Ḥaram al-Sharīf itself.

HISTORY AND HISTORIANS IN MAKKAH

(3RD - 13TH CENTURIES A.H.)

http://doi.org/10.56656/100025

Collected and presented by Muhammad Habib el-Hila

SKU: 100025

The author establishes through his study the existence of an independent and historic school within Makkah itself. The school is characterised by its uniqueness in comparison to neighbouring schools in the Arab World. The school itself did not form part of the Egyptian nor Levantine (al-Shām) schools. The author details historical works and their authors. It also brings to light the syllabi and the uniqueness of the school.
The book is chronologically arranged by date of death of the historians, beginning with the year 244 A.H. to 1295 A.H.

AL-JAWĀHIR AL-ḤISĀN

ANNOTATED AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF SCHOLARS IN MAKKAH

http://doi.org/10.56656/100024

By Zakariya A. Beela
Critically edited by Abdul Wahhab I. Abu Solayman and Mohammad I. Ahmad Ali

SKU: 100024

This book establishes itself as an important documentation of the history of scholarship in Makkah. It comprehensively lists the details of scholars who were present in Makkah during the fourteenth Hijrī century and presents biographies of several of them. These include citizens, visitors, those living nearby and those visiting for the Ḥajj as well as students. The author also included the biographies of a number of notables whom he did not meet but who left a lasting legacy.
The study is truly comprehensive in its descriptive nature of the academic level and production of scholarly works, and is written by a scholar and lifelong dweller of the city itself.
The book can be considered a reference for those researching the history of Makkah, in its cultural, academic and jurisprudential fields.

SCHOLARLY LIFE IN ḤIJĀZ DURING THE MAMLŪKĪ PERIOD

(648-923 A.H. / 1250-1517 A.D.)

http://doi.org/10.56656/100016

By Khalid M. H. Al-Gabri

SKU: 100016

This book is a historical study of the process of knowledge and its study during the Mamlūk period (1250-1517). This period was characterised by the existence of major scholarly works. Much attention was given to the pursuit of knowledge as shown in the attitudes of the rulers of the Ḥijāz of the time, of the scholars and the scholarly families living in the region. The author also looked at the contributions and position of women in the intellectual life, the works they produced, the certifications and permissions to teach they received, and the schools and clubs they set up. The author devoted a chapter to the scholars of the time and their intellectual contributions in all of the fields of Sharīʿah, linguistics and literature, social studies and studies of logic and the applied sciences.
