By Various Contributors
Al-Furqan Islamic Heritage Foundation

SKU: 101229

The book, “Ahmed Zaki Yamani: The Heritage of an Ummah in a Man” is an honorary dedication to His Excellency, the late Shaykh Ahmed Zaki Yamani (Allah bestow mercy on him); representing a humble gift to this uniquely exceptional personality. Its pages witness to the proceedings of the commemorative symposium, “The Personality and Ideas of His Excellency Shaykh Ahmed Zaki Yamani”, organised on Thursday, 26 May 2022, at Al-Furqān Foundation's headquarters, with the participation of eminent academics and esteemed scholars, closely linked to him, in addition to friends and members of the family. The book’s special importance lies in that it presents live testimonies penned—as a present, salute, and expression of appreciation and faithfulness—by a company of devotees, friends, and those cognisant of his favour, in recognition of his unique standing as an exceptional trend in our contemporary history, celebrating his memory, honouring him, and extolling his worth and status. These testimonies revolved around the rich and multiple facets of his personality (Allah bestow mercy on him), presenting his ideas and positions, the works he established, and the events he experienced, with special focus on the three areas of interest within the Al-Furqān project; the pioneering project that he founded and was closest to his heart, through focus on his efforts at reviving studies related to Islamic heritage, the Two Noble Sanctuaries, or the philosophy (maqāṣid) of Islamic law.

THE POETS' GEOGRAPHY

http://doi.org/10.56656/100126

By Annemarie Schimmel

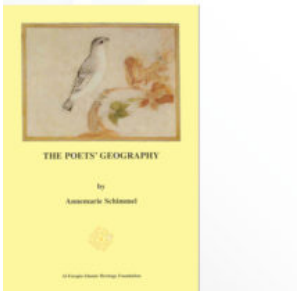

SKU: 100126

This lecture, by Annemarie Schimmel, looks at the methodology employed by poets in the Islamic World by examining their use of various names of cities, rivers and natural landmarks, in addition to their turning of historical events into poetic verses, breathing with life, in an effort to celebrate the greatness of the past or in yearning for a loved one. This form of expression embodies their experiences and spiritual yearnings. The reader can see from the collection of poetic writings that Muslim poets seemed to be spiritually tied to each other, as if they spoke in one metaphorical tongue, even if their language is different and even if they are separated by vast stretches of land and time.

MUSIC IN MUSLIM CIVILISATION

http://doi.org/10.56656/100110

By Muhammad Salih al-Mahdi

SKU: 100110

The importance of this book is in bringing to the fore the attention that the Arabs gave to music, its instruments, its particular scale, and songs from the pre-Islamic times onwards. It also discusses how Islam allowed listening to music so long as certain conditions were met. The book also indicates that many nations that entered into Islam brought their musical cultural heritage with them and in doing so they contributed to the growth of a unique form of music within the Islamic civilisation. The author also mentioned famous musicians and singers such as: Ibn Misjaḥ, Ibn Maḥriz, Ibn Suraij, Ziryāb, etc., who also authored several works in this field.

SCIENCE IN ISLAM AND CLASSICAL MODERNITY

http://doi.org/10.56656/100112

By Roshdi Rashed

SKU: 100112

The author establishes how the field of algebra was developed by Muslim mathematicians, which helped to spur a revolution in the field. He also rebuts a number of philosophers, including Edmund Husserl, a philosopher and writer on modern history of the period post fourteenth century A.D. For the author, the work produced in the fourteenth century is comparatively of a lower standard than that produced in the twelve and thirteenth centuries during which time the Latin scholars were in the process of understanding and appreciating what the Arab academics had produced in the variety of fields of science and in particular that of geometry, algebra and optics. The book is rich in its detail of the intellectual heritage of both the East and West. The book consists of three papers, the original work being a lecture presented by Roshdī Rāshid in French. The book is written in three languages, Arabic, English and French.

HUMAN RIGHTS IN ISLAM

http://doi.org/10.56656/100095

By Various Contributors
Edited by Al-Furqan Islamic Heritage Foundation

SKU: 100095

The book is a collection of papers discussed at a symposium on “Human Rights in Islam” over the course of three days. The symposium was called by the Foundation in order to bring to light those rights that have been lost or are largely unknown as principles of human rights in Islam. The opening paper was on Human Rights in Social Solidarity, followed by the paper on jihād in Islam: The First Guarantee of Human Rights. Next, Public Rights and Freedoms in Islam. Then came a paper on ‘International Organisations’ Stands on Crimes Against Humanity: an Islamic Perspective’. It was followed by: Health as a Human Right, then The Rights of Non-Muslims in an Islamic Society’. Lastly the paper to be delivered was: Organising for the Protection of Human Rights. Shaykh Ahmad Zaki Yamani presented a paper on Equality between Women and Men in Islam.
It became clear from the papers that much of what the West considers to be human rights was indeed amongst the fundamental obligations in the Muslim system of beliefs.

ISLAM AND THE WONDERS OF CREATION

THE ANIMAL KINGDOM

http://doi.org/10.56656/100097

By Annemarie Schimmel

SKU: 100097

Annemarie Schimmel focuses in this book on the extent to which Islamic culture has taken interest in the animal kingdom. So much so that animal names have been used as human names, animal stories have featured in literature and animals' examples have been used to explain ideas, theories and concepts. This in addition to the many similarities drawn from the animal kingdom found in literature and poetry. Professor Schimmel has surveyed the mention of animals and birds by Muslim authors and reviewed such mentions in a number of languages in which she is proficient, namely Arabic, Turkish, Sindi and Persian. Special attention was given to poetry in this regard. She holds that animals form an important part of the Islamic heritage, as the mention of animals has been made in the Qurʾān more than in any other holy book. She also points out that animals can be symbolic for profound spiritual truths.
